

FACILITIES AVAILABLE IN THE DEPARTMENT :

Infrastructural Facilities

- I. The department has a separate seminar library for the benefit of the students, with a significant number of books being added every year.
- II. The smart classroom, with digital projection system and touch-enabled smart-board is used for digitally enhanced teaching and learning practices.

Teaching Methods

- I. Classroom lecture
- II. Tutorial classes
- III. Students seminar and group discussion
- IV. Power point presentation (ppt)
- V. Project work
- VI. Special lectures by eminent academicians
- VII. Audio visual screening

Special Activities

- I. The department publishes a wall-magazine every year, which is planned, edited, and designed by the bengali honours and general students.
- II. The students of the department also regularly participate in the district level youth parliament competition.
- III. The students also take active part in the national service scheme (nss) of baruipur college, which have won several awards.

Activities of the Department

- I. The students also participate in seminars and workshops organized by different institutions to be aware of the latest academic and technical issues related to bengali literature.
- II. Students participate in sports and cultural activities organized by the college.
- III. The department has also organized a number of ugc sponsored national seminar on various aspects of bengali literature and culture.
- IV. The department also organizes teachers' exchange programs in collaboration with other educational institute.