

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME(GENERAL)

1.Introduction to Political Theory(SEM-1): It helps students better understanding of the concepts that have shaped our politics including freedom, equality, individuality, democracy and justice. To be able to provide a launching pad for learners seeking a clear grasp of theoretical, empirical and methodological issues and the main areas of debate in the complex and fragmented world of Political Science.

2.Comparative Government and Politics (SEM-2): Comparative politics is the study of domestic politics, political institutions and conflicts between two or more countries. It compares the political experience, institutions, behaviour and the processes of the system of Government. To acquaint learners with the constitutional processes in different countries of the world with special reference to U.K, U.S.A and China along with a minor coverage of the constitutions of Switzerland, France and Bangladesh

3.Government and Politics in India (SEM-3): To acquaint learners with the historical background of the formation of the Indian Constitution, actual working of the constitution, the functions of three tiers of the Government, the political process that is at work within the dynamics of social and economic changes.

4.International Relations (SEM-4): To acquaint learners with the study of International Relations both as a theoretical discipline as well as with the intricacies of global politics that plays out in the world today along with India's foreign policy relations that plays an effective role in international politics today

5.Skill Enhancement Course-Legal Literacy (SEM-3, A(1): The purpose of this module is to educate the students about the legal system of India which they need to know for discharging their responsibility as a common citizen of India where it would be possible to check on the arbitrary and illegal application of rules and laws leading to abuse of power. Such understanding makes citizens active and participatory and prevents them from exploitation.

Basic Research Methods (SEM-4, B(2): The purpose of the course is to expose the students to the world of research in the social sciences and equip them with skills of data collection, data interpretation and use of different methods and techniques of qualitative and quantitative researches

6.Discipline specific elective-Public administration (SEM-5): Public administration oversees the plans of government-policies, formulation and implementation of policies and the execution of those policies. The knowledge of Public Administration and Public Policy in India acquaints a student with the core administrative systems, processes, functions, decision making, policy making and its execution by the administrative authorities of the government.

Human Rights: Theory and Indian Context (SEM-6): The main objective of this course is to acquaint the learners about the evolution of human rights movement, Universal Declaration of Human rights, the mechanisms existent for the realisation of these rights with special reference to India.